EASILY TRANSITION TO OPTIMAL CONTROL, REDUCE RISKS AND GAIN FLEXIBILITY

IO.CONNECT simplifies your path to a modern, easy-to-use DeltaV distributed control solution that improves not only day-to-day operations, but delivers the reliability needed for process optimization, streamlines complicated tasks and eliminates work, extends flexibility by offering multiple types of I/O, simplifies data integration and reduces process risk.

FLEXIBLY USE CAPITAL TO REDUCE OPERATING COSTS & DRIVE RETURN ON INVESTMENT

IO.CONNECT helps plants implement DeltaV DCS and new control software and technologies of their choice without the need to completely overhaul the automation equipment infrastructure. No rip-and-replace required. Plants can preserve their I/O investment and opportunistically transition to DeltaV over time, paying only for what is needed while minimizing production impact.

Requires up to 40 % less capital than a rip-and-replace.

DeltaV IO.CONNECT offers high-performance hardware, greater uptime, and high efficiency. At the same time, it is a robust solution that utilizes proven, industrial-grade hardware and is thoroughly tested, secure and reliable. IO.CONNECT is specifically designed to future-proof your operation; as plants are transitioned to DeltaV over time, their automation system is and will remain available, current, and up to date.

REDUCE TOTAL COST OF OWNERSHIP, GAIN IMPROVED SUPPORT

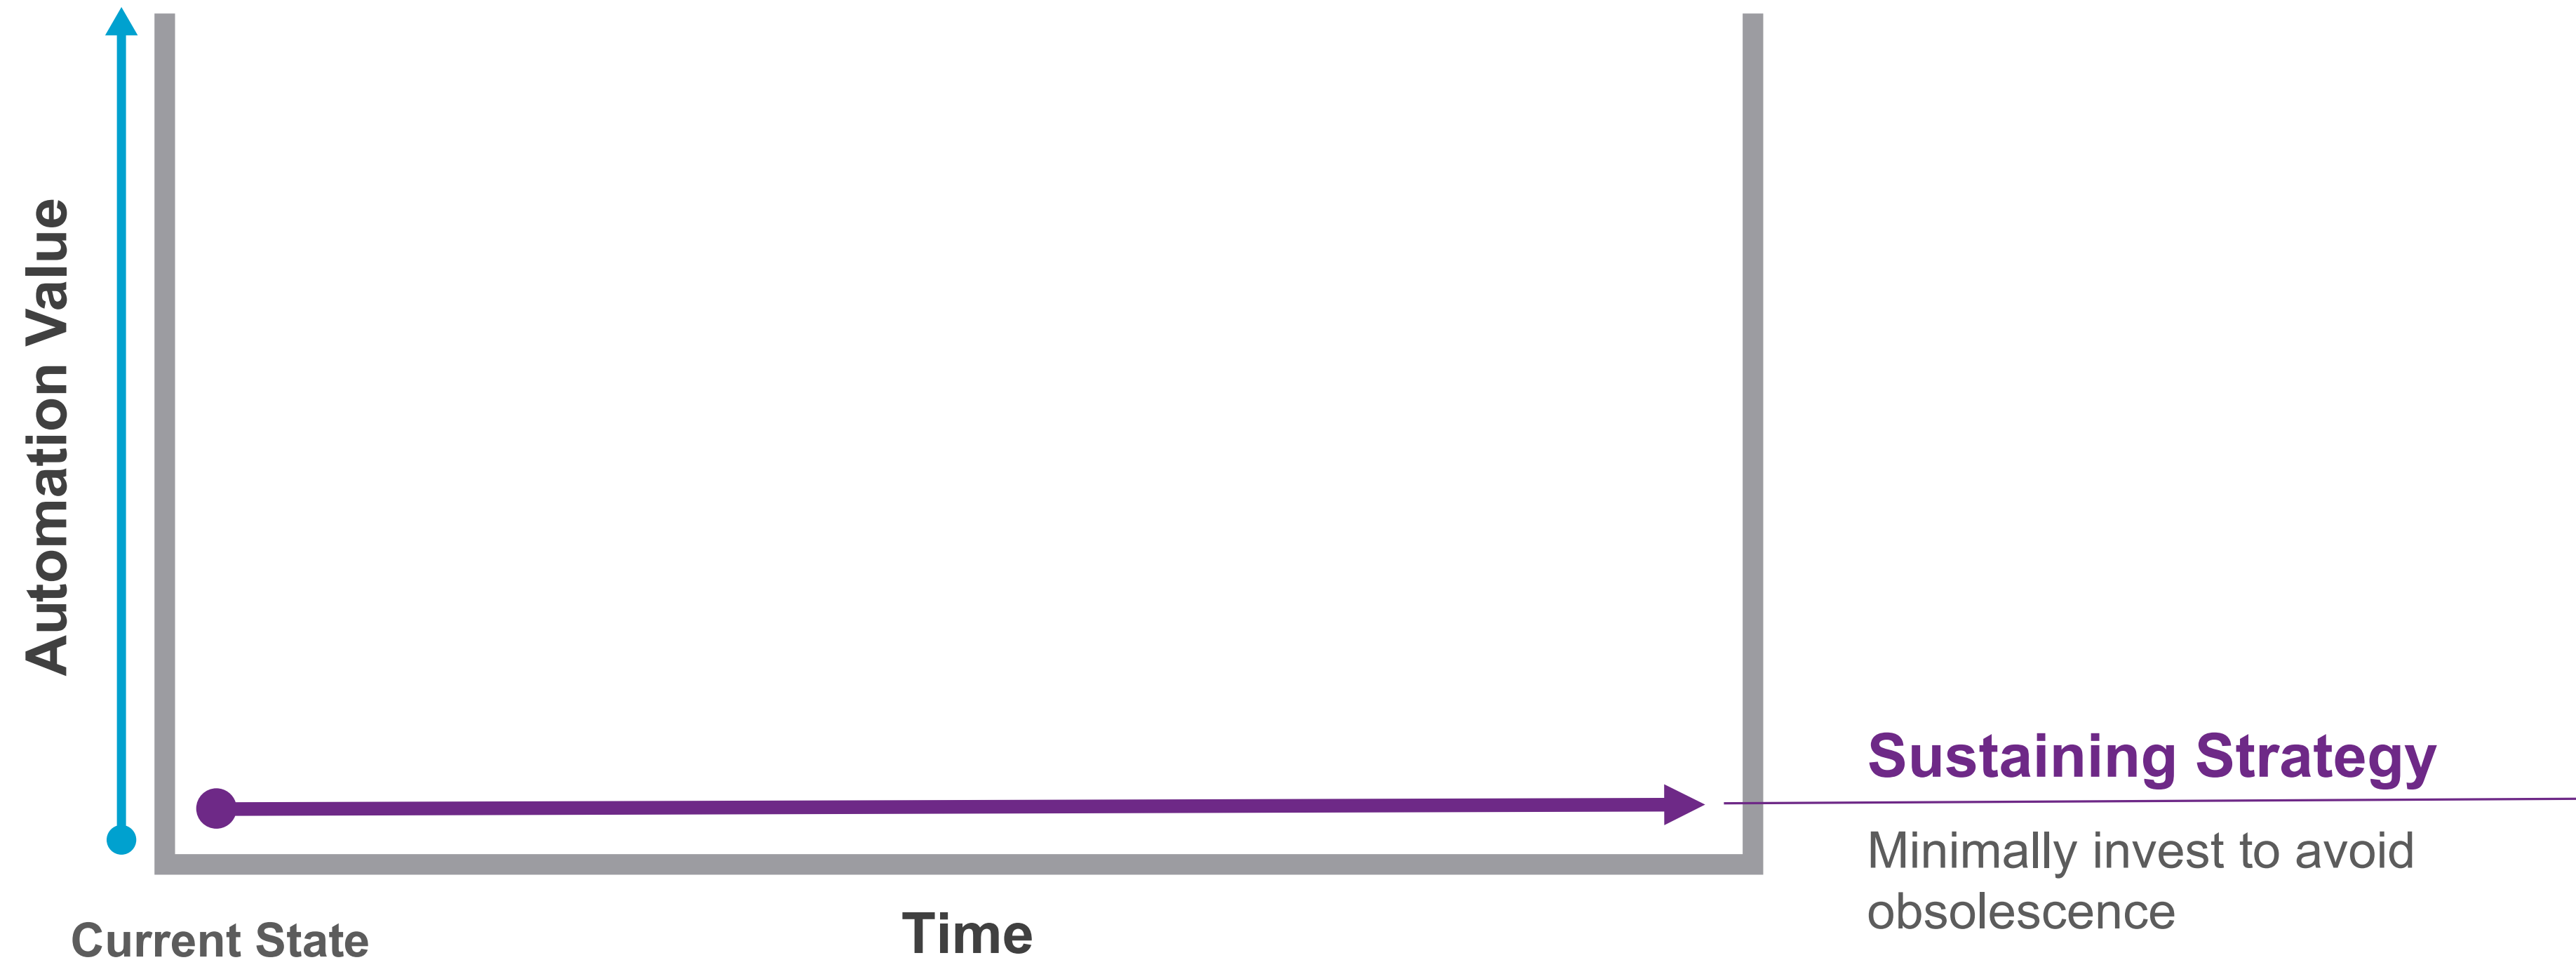

With a more modern software installed, you can drop your legacy automation system support. What's more, our extensive network of global application and technical experts can support you wherever you're at, whenever you need it.
